A fully online preparatory course in postgraduate Family Medicine which emphasises on Objective Structured Clinical Examination (OSCE) which is being conducted as the Mock Exam for Part 2 Conjoint MAFP/FRACGP Exams.

Participants will go through ten (10) OSCE stations. In each station, one volunteer will be examined for eight minutes, followed by immediate feedback on their 'performance'. A positive discussion on ways of improvement engaging all participants will ensue, so that it will be a truly learning and interactive experience for all. This discussion with facilitators will take place over 20 minutes. It will be conducted using the Remote Clinical Examination (RCE) format, aligning to RACGP's educational strategies.

OBJECTIVES

- The workshop which will cover areas of clinical importance to general practitioners is tailored to offer general practitioners an exemplary educational experience.
- It also will serve as the Mock Exam for FRACGP examinations, which will help to raise the level of general practice in Malaysia.
