

DEVELOPMENT, IMPLEMENTATION AND EVALUATION OF COMMUNITY BASED ORAL HEALTH INTERVENTIONS

19 April 2019 (Friday)
8:30am - 5:00pm

International Medical University, Bukit Jalil, Kuala Lumpur

ABOUT THIS WORKSHOP

Development and evaluation are the core elements in the planning process for complex interventions. With oral health programmes, a wide diversity of intervention approaches exist.

This one full day co-designed workshop will focus on the co-design, the development and realistic evaluation of community development interventions. The workshop will also include insight for situational approach to service evaluation through pluralistic methodologies.

Objectives

- To understand MRC framework for complex interventions
- The steps taken in co-designing and developing a community development intervention
- To understand the need for programme evaluation, what evaluation can provide and what happens when you do not evaluate.
- To evaluate a community development intervention through realistic approach
- To understand the use of pluralistic methodologies in the evaluation of oral health promotion interventions.
- Demonstrate skill-building activities regarding development and evaluation of community development intervention.
