This intensive house officer bridging course will prepare you for the challenges of housemanship. Through a mixture of seminars, hands-on sessions and simulation stations you will be up to speed with the necessary clinical and communication skills to negotiate common patient encounters and emergency situations. Valuable tips from experts in their field will ensure that you will develop skills to face your houseman role with confidence.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- To impart "hands-on" experience in procedures commonly encountered in housemanship
- To gain experience on the management of common medical and surgical encounters
- To develop the essential skills in approaching common emergencies
- To impart the necessary skills in negotiating difficult patient encounters
- To develop strategies on coping with job-related stress
- To give some of those lesser known "top tips" to help you get ready for those exciting first day on the wards!

AMONG THE BLENDED SEMINARS AND PRACTICAL SKILLS SESSIONS:

1. Acute emergencies – the houseman's role
2. ECG, CXR and results interpretation – what next for a house officer?
3. Neonatal Resuscitation Programme
4. The pocket essentials in Paediatrics – don't forget that toy!
