This CPD event encompasses the different surgical-based specialties in IMU. It offers up-to date information to the common conditions encountered by general practitioners in their daily practice. This will be supplemented by hands-on training on the practical management of these common conditions.

OBJECTIVES

- To update general practitioners on the recent practice in the management of commonly encountered conditions.
- Provide hands-on training on the management of these conditions.
- Provide a base for effective Q&A whereby general practitioners may interact with experienced IMU specialists.
